Schedule Linda Schaefer To Speak At Your Event

Fascinate and delight your audience at an upcoming event with a speaker you'll never forget.

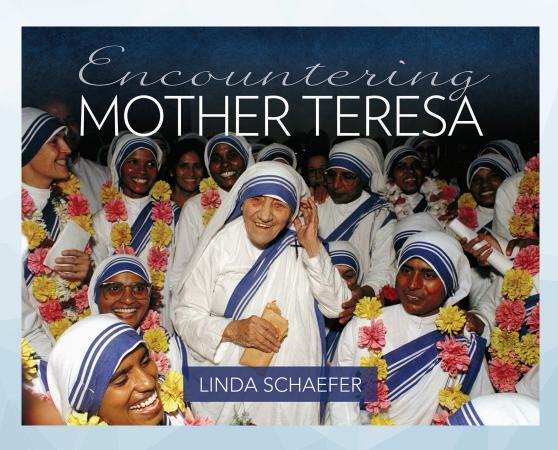

Linda Schaefer is currently scheduling speaking engagements to coincide with the release of her exciting new book, Encountering Mother Teresa (Our Sunday Visitor, 2019).

As a journalist, Linda has worked for CNN, AP, and numerous international and national magazines. She first met Mother Teresa in Atlanta in 1995 when covering her visit for the archdiocese of Atlanta. Two months later she was on a flight to Calcutta, after Mother Teresa herself invited her to "Come and See." Schaefer believes this has been her lifelong calling, to document Mother Teresa's legacy and continued presence in the world.

Linda has spoken for hundreds of parishes throughout the U.S., as well as for charitable organizations of all denominations. She has been keynote speaker for organizations and universities. Her work has been exhibited in museums and galleries with accompanying talks.

Linda will tailor her talk to align with the focus of your event and will work within your budget. She also accepts love offerings from smaller parishes and groups.
